

Lujza Urbancová

Language and identity

Imagine that you are going to get married and you and your partner consider the choice of your future name.

Would you like: (underline your choice)

- to keep your name?
- to have your partner's name?
- to keep your name and to add your partner's name?
- to choose a completely new name?
- other option – describe...

If you have a surname with -ová ending, would you like to have a new one without -ová? Comment on your response.

Your gender: (underline)

male

female other

How do students see national and European identity?

What is the country you live in special for? (Please, do not write I do not know...) Write more than one characteristic.

Country: