Time needed:	1 unit (45 minutes)
Description of activity:	At the start, a brainstorming will take place to determine the level of student pre-concepts in the field of feminism. Afterwards, the teacher will introduce students with the definition of the term feminism, conditions of equality asserted and requested by the suffragettes, the main causes of the second wave of feminism and classification and characteristics of types of feminism. The last part represents a feedback discussion of students and explanation of their questions.
Created:	10. 3. 2022	Author:	Mgr. Tomáš Hubálek, Ph.D.
Own reflections:	Students will gain a deeper insight into the reflection of feminism during the history and from the current point of view. With using the information in the presentation, students can reinforce their opinions and attitudes on the issue of feminism and its understanding in Europe. At the end, there is a feedback with student's reflection, on which students can verify the amount of memorized information from the presentation.
